

By exploring your heritage and comparing it with that of others, you begin to appreciate those cultures and gain a greater understanding of the world around you.

Exploring Cultural Traditions

For each of the following items, list an example from your culture and another culture.

	My Culture	Another Culture
A Traditional Food
A Popular Game
A Traditional Dance
A Traditional Ceremony
A Popular Music Genre
A Traditional Dress

DISCUSSION

Share your answers with the class. Were there similarities between the cultures? What were the differences?

EXTENSION

- Newspaper Activity. Use the weather map to locate an international city from the culture you explored above. Note the weather and temperature in that city and Columbus. What connections can you make between the culture and the climate? List them below.

City	Climate	Connections
Columbus

Learning outcomes: Explores other cultures to gain an appreciation of those cultures, effectively uses appropriate reference materials for gathering information, becomes familiar with dialects and cultures through reading experiences.

This 4-week series is written by Matt Cox, sixth-grade teacher at Big Walnut Middle School, Sunbury, and Leah Miller, tenth- and eleventh-grade English teacher at Upper Arlington High School.